THE MESSAGE OF

The Implications of Easter: The Message of 1 Peter

1 Peter begins by declaring, "By (God's) great mercy, He has given us a new birth into a living hope through the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead..." The rest of the letter spells out the implications of that new birth—making it a fitting topic for the season of Easter. Meeting in the Faith Center.

Preteens, Teens, and Screams! Help for parents of older children

Remember when the biggest issues with your kids were teaching them to share and pick up their toys? As they get older, the issues become more complex. Join Pastor Dave as we discuss a myriad of issues we face with our youth, including screen time, anxiety, busyness, getting them to go to church, and talking about difficult issues. Meeting in the third floor conference room.

Holy Communion is served at the First Word and Sanctuary Services on the first and second Sunday each month. It is served in the Foundation on the third and fourth Sunday of each month.

We welcome to the Lord's Table all baptized Christians who believe that Jesus Christ is present in the bread and wine of Holy Communion. Children who have completed communion instruction are welcome to receive the Lord's Supper. All other children are welcome to come forward for a blessing.

If you are unable to receive wine, please let the wine server know and grape juice will be provided. Gluten-free communion wafers are also available. Please let the server know and they will be provided.
