Our theme for Sundays this summer is "Thirty Years That Changed the World: The Book of Acts for Today."

The title comes from author Michael Green's book of the same name. Acts relates how the Holy Spirit, starting with a cowering group of 11 disciples, began a movement that went from "Jerusalem and in all Judea and Samaria, and to the end of the earth" (Acts 1:8). It tells about the birth of the church, and how that church grew into a force that rocked the Empire, as God used ordinary sinners in extraordinary ways—sinners like Paul, Phillip, Barnabas, James, Lydia, and Stephen.
