

A Simple Way: The Office of the Keys

Week 6 Devotional Questions for Discussion at Home

Monday

Adults: Share about a time when someone forgave you. How did it feel? Question for families with older children: When is a time that you wronged someone, and they forgave you even though you didn't think you deserved it?

Question for families with younger children: How do you forgive someone?

Tuesday

Adults: Which is easier for you to say: "I'm sorry" or "I forgive you"? Why is that?

Question for families with older children: Would you rather forgive or be forgiven?

Question for families with younger children: Why is it good to say, "I'm sorry"?

Wednesday

Adults: Why is a "key" a good analogy for forgiving sins?

Question for families with older children: What is an analogy that feels like forgiveness?

Question for families with younger children: Why is it good to forgive someone?

Thursday

Adults: Can a pastor really declare you are forgiven? Can any Christian really declare you are forgiven? If so, on what authority?

Question for families with older children: Do you believe that you have the power to forgive?

Question for families with younger children: What makes forgiving someone hard? But can you forgive anyone?

Friday

Adults: Do you know someone you need to forgive? Do you know someone who really needs to receive God's forgiveness?

Question for families with older children: What does the freedom of forgiveness look like?

Question for families with younger children: How do you feel after someone forgives you?