I'll Be Home for Christmas

Being at home with family, sharing beloved traditions, is a treasured part of Christmas. This series will explore passages from Isaiah addressed to God’s people who longed to return home from exile and how these texts point to the eternal home that is ours in Christ. Meeting in the Faith Center, Nov. 30 to Dec. 21.

Raising Passionate Jesus Followers

Resuming next week in the office conference room, through December 21.

We are excited to host a joint choir concert at 3 p.m. today with an LCMC sister congregation, St. John’s Lutheran Church of Howard Lake. Their music director, Nicholas Hinson, along with our own Austin Willhite, are excited to showcase their individual choirs as well as join all the voices together in praise and song. We hope to see you for an afternoon spent in celebration of community, music, and our awesome God!

Stewardship Corner

We are in need of more ushers for the month of December (does not include the Christmas services). If you can help, please let Marsha know – marshas@faithlc.com or 587-2093. Thank you!
