What Does This Mean?

1. What in Genesis 29 was surprising for Martin Luther and his readers?
2. Though never named, how was God at work in all the details of this text?
3. How was God's wisdom and blessing at work in the messy details of Jacob's marriage?
4. What promise does this ancient text proclaim to us today?

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, you have promised to “look far down (and) raise the poor from the dust.” We thank you for assuring us that you know the smallest details of our lives and pursue your will in even the lowliest of daily activities. Yet still, you have prepared joys beyond all understanding for all who love and trust you. Pour into our hearts such love for you that, loving you above all things, we may receive your gifts which exceed all that we can desire; through your Son, Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Apostles’ Creed

I believe in God, the Father almighty, creator of heaven and earth.

I believe in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord. He was conceived by the power of the Holy Spirit and born of the virgin Mary. He suffered under Pontius Pilate, was crucified, died, and was buried. He descended into hell. On the third day he rose again. He ascended into heaven, and is seated at the right hand of the Father.

He will come again to judge the living and the dead. I believe in the Holy Spirit, the holy Christian Church, the communion of saints, the forgiveness of sins, the resurrection of the body, and the life everlasting. Amen.

Praise God, from whom all blessings flow;

Praise him, all creatures here below;

Praise him above, ye heav’nly host;

Praise Father, Son, and Holy Ghost.
