Stewardship Corner

How do you determine the amount of your offerings to the church and other giving? Biblical stewardship calls us to base our giving on a percentage of our income, rather than a specific dollar amount. What percentage that is—1%, 5%, 10% or more—is not the main issue, but rather that it ties our giving directly to how God first blesses us. Proportional giving often results in quite a bit higher offerings than choosing specific amounts, yet those who practice it universally affirm that it does not create hardship. God continues to provide! If you have not done so yet, check out what proportional giving might mean for your household.

Raising Kids in the Digital World

Helping families navigate technology through faith and mental health on Wednesdays starting Sept. 23 from 5-6 p.m.

This resource, developed by Christian mental health practitioners, seeks to support families as they navigate the challenges and tensions surrounding their children's online presence in an increasingly digital world. The group will combine Biblical truths with evidence-based mental health practices to help families develop healthy boundaries, strengthen communication, and support their children's emotional and spiritual well-being in the digital age.

See You At the Pole

Middle and High School students are encouraged to join area youth leaders at their school early (7 a.m.) on Wednesday, September 23. Meet at your school flag pole for a time of prayer for teachers, students, administrators, coaches and the school year.

Coming Soon - Faith Groups: Bumper Sticker Theology

Faith Groups are small groups that meet for six weeks to participate in a study created by Pastors Scott and Dave. Watch a video and discuss questions prepared for you. Some groups meet at church, and some meet offsite. There are a number of different days of the week and times that groups meet. Some groups meet together at Faith on Tuesday nights and share a meal before doing the study. Those groups have the option of using the staffed nursery after dinner. You are invited to join the group that works best for you, or you can start your own. Contact Marsha to find or start a group and to reserve your materials today at 587-2093 or marshas@faithlc.com.

It Is Time to Chime: Sunday, October 4!

We hope that you have heard about this new opportunity to participate in worship through music. If you are ages 10 to 110, you can take part. You don't have to read music or have any musical experience. All you need to do is come ½ hour before the First Word or Sanctuary service and meet with Austin for a short time of instruction. This is a great opportunity to participate in worship with your family or friends: grandparents and grandkids, parents and children, siblings, friends, mentors and mentees. Grab a friend and come give it try on Sunday, October 4!

Aftershock Is Back - Wednesday, October 7!

Aftershock is an early release ministry for children in kindergarten through 5th grade. It will be held on early release Wednesdays, right after school dismissal. We will have a snack, Bible story time, crafts, and games. Register on the Faith website now, as space is limited for this event.

Aftershock Needs Adults to Help

For this program to be successful, adult volunteers are needed to help with a variety of stations. Contact Laura (587-2093), and she will help you find a way to put your gifts and talents to use.
