Through beloved hymns, Scripture, prayer, and reflection, we will celebrate the songs of faith that unite the Church across generations on All Saints Sunday. We will give thanks for the saints who have gone before us, for those who faithfully witness to Christ among us today, and for the promise that one day we will all be gathered together in the body of Christ. All are welcome! Come and celebrate the enduring gift of the Church's song as we sing together in the communion of saints.
