Digging DEEPER

NEW Digging Deeper Opportunities

Martin Luther and the Specter of Islam
The rise of Islam, especially in the Western world, raises some troubling questions and concerns. A similar situation existed in Martin Luther's day, and he addressed the topic of Islam several times. This class will explore Luther's writings about Islam along with a new book on the topic by Adam Francisco, The Turk at the Door. Meeting in the Faith Center through December 20.

How to make Advent and Christmas more meaningful for you and your family. Meet in the main floor conference room to look ahead at the upcoming Gospel readings, explore what the readings and themes mean in our lives, color (yes, there is a matching coloring poster!), and take an activity home for you and your family. Starting October 25 through December 13 (not meeting November 29).

Nursery is open from 9-11:30 a.m.

A Hymn Festival Celebrating the Song of the Saints

Sunday, November 1, 2026 | 3:00 p.m.

Through beloved hymns, Scripture, prayer, and reflection, we will celebrate the songs of faith that unite the Church across generations on All Saints Sunday. We will give thanks for the saints who have gone before us, for those who faithfully witness to Christ among us today, and for the promise that one day we will all be gathered together in God's eternal kingdom. All are welcome! Come and celebrate the enduring gift of the Church's song as we sing together in the communion of saints.
